

ST. STEPHEN PROTOMARTYR UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

>>WE WELCOME ALL WHO JOIN US TODAY IN WORSHIP!<<

OCTOBER 22nd-2017

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

HOLY WONDERWORKER AND EQUAL-TO-THE-APOSTLES ABERCIUS,
BISHOP OF HIEROPOLIS (523)

Troparion and Kontakia

Troparion: Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice,* for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm.* He trampled death by death. He became the first-born of the dead;* He saved us from the abyss of Hades* and granted great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: : You rose from the tomb, O compassionate Lord,* and led us out from the gates of death.* Today Adam exults and Eve rejoices,* and the prophets together with the patriarchs* unceasingly acclaim the divine might of Your power.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion: Today the Virgin stands before us in the church* and together with the choirs of saints invisibly prays to God for us.* Angels are worshipping with hierarchs,* Apostles exult with prophets,* for the Mother of God prays in our behalf to the eternal God.

Prokeimenon

Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.
verse: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy.

Epistle

Galatians 1:1-19

Brothers and Sisters, I want you to know, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him fifteen days; but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord's brother.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

verse: In You, O Lord, have I hoped that I may not be put to shame for ever.

verse: Be a protector unto me, O God, and a house of refuge to save me.

Gospel

Luke 7:11-16

At that time, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, rise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us!" and "God has looked favourably on his people!"

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

Welcome our new Pastor Father Greg Faryna

"Father Greg, we want to take this opportunity to welcome you with open arms to your new parish family!"

I had the opportunity to sit down with Father Greg this past week and I want to share that conversation with all of you so you can get to know him as I did.

Father Greg was born on January 19, 1965 (yes he said it was ok to share), in Viking AB. At the time his family lived on a farm south of Holden. Father Greg told me he still likes to go out to the family farm to relax and get away.

Father Greg's Mom passed away 20 years ago. He is the primary care giver to his Father who still lives in his own home in Edmonton. He is the youngest of four children (all in the Edmonton area), with 2 older brothers and a sister. Sadly, his sister was diagnosed with ALS in February of 2016. Our thoughts and prayers are with her and your entire family.

Father Greg decided to become a priest in his early 30's. When he was young he went to church with his family most Sundays. After high school he was a C & E Christian (Christmas and Easter). About 8 years later he decided to start going to church again for no particular reason. He said it just felt comfortable. One Sunday the priest's homily was about parents not blocking their children's vocation. For half a moment he thought he might want to become a priest, but then he thought, 'give your head a shake no one does that anymore'. But God is persistent and for the next 6 years it seemed as though everything that happened in his life pointed in that direction. He approached the parish priest and started his studies with the Basilian Order but later chose to study under the Bishop of Edmonton, entering Holy Spirit Seminary in Ottawa in 1998.

On October 11, 2003 Father Greg was ordained in his home parish - St. Basil's in Edmonton. His parish assignments were as follows:

2003 to 2007 - Assistant Pastor at the Cathedral in Edmonton, as well as Administrator (looking after a parish in the absence of the resident priest,) for Holy Eucharist and Holy Cross parishes in Edmonton.

2008 to 2013 - Chancellor of the Edmonton Eparchy.

2013 to 2017 - Pastor of Camrose District parishes.

When asked about his feelings when he heard he was moving to St. Stephen's he was shocked, but after discussions with Bishop David, Father Mark and Father Bohdan, he felt that it would be a good move.

Questions for Father Greg:

What do you see as your priorities in this first year at St. Stephen's? Understanding how the parish works and not changing parish life to my perspective but adapting my ministry to the needs of the parish. Be sure the spiritual life is fed first, and then focus on pastoral, charitable and administrative work.

What do you like to do in your spare time? I enjoy doing yard work on the family farm. I like hiking, camping, skiing and golf ... I want to learn how to snowboard.

What would we be surprised to learn about you? I worked in the parts department in the automotive industry until I entered the seminary.

What does a typical day at work look like for you? It will be different from Camrose. I have never had 2 days the same throughout my entire priesthood.

Where do you see God moving in your own life in your role as a priest? Definitely as my Guide, my Support, that which brings me peace.

What advice would you give young people considering the priesthood or other vocations? Be open to God's presence in your life. We get so distracted we don't even feel God's presence. Don't let the perspectives and opinions of others keep you away from your faith life.

Where do you see the greatest challenges for us as people of faith? Christianity is so counter cultural. Maybe that is a blessing as the early church was also counter cultural, forcing people to make a decision about how they wanted to live their lives. I feel the revolutionary teachings of Jesus then and now, is that life is not just about me, but rather how I can assist others. To be Christian is to be communal.

Is there a verse or quote that inspires you? Psalm 51 verse 1 "Have mercy on me O God, according to your unfailing love ..."

How can we as a congregation support you as you settle into your new life at St. Stephen's? Just be patient with me, I know I will make mistakes. I look forward to having those pastoral relationships so I can become part of your family.

Sit towards the front where it is easier to see and hear.

Quietly explain the parts of the Liturgy to your children.

Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behaviours by copying you.

If you need to leave Liturgy with your child, please feel free to do so, but please come back. You can also take advantage of the "cry room".

Remember that the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to Church, to God and to Christ. Let them know that they are at home in this sacred space.

We love pew art! Please use the blank papers and colouring sheets provided in the "cry room" (not pew envelopes) for your child to draw us some beautiful art. We can hang them on our parish bulletin boards for all to enjoy.

Do your best to attend Liturgy on time.

In fact we'd love it if you would come up to the priests before service and give them a "high five". When kids know the priest they feel more comfortable.

To the members of our parish...

A smile of encouragement is always welcome to parents with small, active children.

On Monday, September 16th, we had 120 Grade 11 students from Fr. Lacombe School to learn about our faith and our church
