EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost, Octoechos Tone 7; Our Venerable Father Anthony of the Monastery of the Caves in Kiev (1073)

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: By Your cross You destroyed death;* You opened Paradise to the thief;* You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy,* and charged the apostles to proclaim* that You are risen, O Christ our God,* offering great mercy to the world.

Troparion: Leaving behind worldly tumult,* O Venerable Father Anthony,* in keeping with the gospel you turned your back on the world,* and leading a life equal to that of angels you attained to the calm haven of Mount Athos* from whence you came to the Mount of Kiev* with the Fathers' blessing* and living there an arduous life you enlightened your fatherland,* pointing the way into the Kingdom on high to a multitude of monks and nuns* and thus you lead your homeland to Christ.* Pray to Him that He save our souls.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 7: No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity,* for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers.* Hades is bound.* The prophets exult with one voice.* The Saviour has come for those with faith, saying:* "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion: Cleaving to God,* whom you loved from your childhood above all else,* you followed Him lovingly with your whole heart,* O Father Anthony.* Scorning this passing world as a trifle* you made your dwelling a cave in the earth.* There you fought well against the unseen enemy's snares* and shone like the sun to the ends of the earth.* From whence you passed joyfully to heaven's mansions* and stand now with angels at the Master's throne.* There we ask you to remember those who feast your memory* that we may cry to you: Rejoice, O Anthony, our Father.

Prokeimenon

The Lord will give strength to His people;* the Lord will bless His people with peace.

verse: Bring to the Lord, O you sons of God; bring to the Lord young rams.

The Lord will give strength to His people;* the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Brothers and Sisters, I appeal to you by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power. For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

At the end of the Epistle parents may send their children to the back of the church to get candles for the reading of the Holy Gospel.

Alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

verse: It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Your name, O Most High.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 14:14-22

At that time when Jesus saw a large crowd, out of compassion for them he cured their sick. Now when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, "This is a desert place and the hour is already late; send the crowds away, so that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food." But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away; you yourselves give them some food." They answered him, "We have here only five loaves and two fishes." He said to them, "Bring them here to me." And when he had ordered the crowd to sit down on the grass, he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd. And all ate and were satisfied; and they gathered up what was left over, twelve baskets full of fragments. Now the number of those who had eaten was five thousand men, not counting women and children. And immediately afterwards he made his disciples get into the boat and cross ahead of him, while he dismissed the crowd.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.* The just man shall be in everlasting remembrance;* of evil hearsay he shall have no fear.*

Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

PASTORAL CARE AT ST STEPHEN'S

The Pastoral Care Team consists of St Stephen's parishioners who are involved with one or more of the following initiatives: St Stephen's Prayer Group, St Stephen's Prayer Shawl Ministry, St Stephen's Eucharistic Ministers, St Stephen's Pastoral Visitors, St Stephen's Support Network.

Here is an update of what's been happening:

- * On Saturday, June 25, 8 parishioners who will be taking Holy Communion to shut-ins along with 5 Lectors met together with Father Bo and Father Mark to receive training.
- * Following this session this group along with other team members who have opted to visit shut-in parishioners will be having police checks to protect themselves, St Stephen's and the public.
- * In the fall both groups will be receiving training "May I Sit With You Awhile?" or from the RC Diocese Pastoral Care Training Program.
- * We intend that by mid- November our official training and qualifying will be completed and the Pastoral Care Eucharistic Ministry and Visiting program will be fully functioning.
- * Then we will begin to look at St Stephen's Support Network and assess the changing needs within our community and determine how to best meet them.

In the meantime, however, the Prayer Group and the Prayer Shawl programs continue to serve parishioners. We will continue to visit our parishioners and care for each other. It is our intention that no one should be overlooked or forgotten.

*... a message from Marilyn Comchi,
Pastoral Care Director*

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!! To all our volunteers this week - A big thank you to everyone (you know who you are) that took so much time out of their busy schedules to clean up all corners of the church. It was a HUGE success!! Your countless hours of efforts are so appreciated!!

Why do we have a different style Bulletin??

As a cost saving effort we have decided to try a less costly "summer bulletin" in the style you see today - using half the paper and in black & white instead of color. In this effort we estimate our savings will be 80-90% LESS than our regular bulletin expenditures. We expect that we may change styles again once the busier months start back up in the fall but will assess accordingly. We welcome any comments or suggestions you may have!
