

ST. STEPHEN PROTOMARTYR UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

A PLACE TO ENCOUNTER THE LIVING CHRIST

OCTOBER 30 - 2016

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The Holy Martyrs Zenobius and Zenobia His Sister (284-305); Passing into eternal life of Blessed Priest-martyr Olesky Zarytsky (1963), Pastor of Strutyn near Zolochiv, and Siberia, Martyr

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: By Your cross You destroyed death;* You opened Paradise to the thief;* You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy,* and charged the apostles to proclaim* that You are risen, O Christ our God,* offering great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity,* for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers.* Hades is bound.* The prophets exult with one voice.* The Saviour has come for those with faith, saying:* "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion: O all-praised treasury of our resurrection, we hope in you,* bring us up from the pit and depth of sin,* for you have saved those subject to sin* by giving birth to our Salvation,* O Virgin before childbirth, and Virgin in childbirth,* and still a Virgin after childbirth.

Prokeimenon

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.*

verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord, my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace..*

Epistle

Ephesians 2:14-22

Brothers and Sisters, Christ is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

At the end of the Epistle parents may send their children to the back of the church to get candles for the reading of the Holy Gospel.

Alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

verse: It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Your name, O Most High.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

verse: To announce Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth every night.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 8:41-56

At that time behold, there came a man named Jairus to Jesus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. And it happened as he went that he was pressed upon by the crowds. And a certain woman who for twelve years had had a loss of blood, and had spent all her livelihood on physicians, but could not be cured by anyone, came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak; and at once her flow of blood ceased. And Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" But as all were denying it, Peter, and those who were with him, said, "Master, the crowds throng and press upon you, and you ask, 'Who touched me?'" But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I perceived that power had gone out from me." But the woman, seeing she had not escaped notice, came up trembling, and falling down at his feet, declared to him in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been healed instantly. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go in peace.") While he was yet speaking, there came one from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble him." But Jesus on hearing this word answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only have faith and she shall be saved." And when he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter and James and John, and the girl's father and mother. And all were weeping and mourning for her. But he said, "Do not weep; she is asleep, not dead." And they laughed at him, knowing she was dead. But he, making them all get out, and taking her by the hand, cried out, saying, "Girl, arise!" And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. And he directed that something be given her to eat. And her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

PASTORAL CARE—WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT?

On Saturday, October 22, five members of St Stephen's Pastoral Care Team attended a workshop entitled "Creating Space To Become a Healing Presence" given by a member of the Christian Pastoral Care-givers Association - CPCA.

Throughout the session, one message was repeated – the power of silence. It is key to creating space – space for self-contemplation, space for others, and space for God. It is difficult to create space if our minds are busy with all the noise and problems of daily living. Even Christ created space by withdrawing to pray and when speaking to his apostles and followers. He created space with pauses while teaching – pauses which allowed for reflection. Also at times we need to just BE...to create a space that is full of potential. When we are still, we can hear God's voice and his promptings.

We need to have God guide and direct us so that we are powered not by self-propulsion but by the Holy Spirit. We need to be aware that we each carry God within us, and we take God wherever we go and into every interaction we have with every other human being. We know ourselves to be children of God, and we see God in every person we meet. Healing takes place when we create space for God to work in each and every interaction.

CPCA will be presenting a workshop, "May I Sit With You Awhile?" in the evening on Friday, November 4th (6:30—10:30pm) and all day on Saturday, November 5th (8:00am—4:30pm—lunch provided) at St Stephen's in which we will be sensitized to the many issues in walking with each other in both the good times and the bad. Some spots are still available.

The Pastoral Care Team consider all parishioners to be part of Pastoral Care at St Stephen's. It is the responsibility of every single member of our parish to reach out to each other and to new-comers. It is up to all of us to contact those we have not seen for a while to say, "Hello, I've missed you." We must look out for one another. That is what a caring community is all about; that is what St Stephen's is all about and that's what being a Christian is all about.

At St. Stephen Protomartyr we know that we are not perfect, but we strive to grow closer to God in all that we do.

Our faith is Christ-Centered, saturated with sacred scripture, holy Tradition, authentic, profound, and ancient - yet completely relevant.

As a community we understand that we must know, love and serve God and all people in order to become balanced and complete. This call to profound personal intimacy is beautiful and real; both solemn and joyful at the same time.

What's a Byzantine - Ukrainian Catholic Church?

Byzantine Christians are those whose traditions, theology and spirituality flow from the early Church in the Middle East and Eastern Europe. Most Eastern Christians are commonly called Orthodox.

Byzantine Catholics are those who proudly maintain their rich Eastern (Orthodox) liturgical, spiritual and theological ways, and yet are in full communion with the Roman Catholic Church. We recognize the leadership of the Pope of Rome, but are not ourselves Roman Catholic.

Our liturgical life is rich with meaning and actions, that speak to our whole beings. Much of our worship remains unchanged from that of our Fathers and Mothers of the early centuries of Christianity.

At St. Stephen Protomartyr, ALL PEOPLE ARE WELCOME who wish to live a Christian and Catholic way of life, regardless of their ethnic, economic, history or any other backgrounds. We are part of God's Holy Church, here to joyfully lead the life taught by the Risen Christ, reaching out with love and proclaiming His word to all people for the glory of God.

If you are spiritually hungry, and if you are looking for a vibrant community to grow with, we welcome you to check us out at <protomartyr.ca> or visit us in person. We look forward to getting to know you.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Parish and Office Support will now be provided by two part-time roles. We are seeking to fill these two new roles within our Parish community:

Office Administrator – This role will work 4 days/week and 7.5 hours/day. The primary responsibilities include general office and parish administration, and accounting duties.

Sacramental Coordinator – This role will work 27 hours/week, with some regular office hours, and some evening and weekend hours as needed. The responsibilities include assisting with documentation and administration for Sacraments, communicating with parishioners by preparing the weekly bulletin and updating the website, and assisting with various parish programs.

Further details on these roles can be obtained by contacting Father Bo at (403) 249-4818 or FatherBo@Protomartyr.ca, and also Mark Ewanchyna, PPC Chair at (403) 880-0905 or mark.ewanchyna@gmail.com.
