"Love Always Protects, Always Trusts, Always Hopes, And Always Perseveres"

God, the author of life, and sustainer of the universe is Love. God calls us to love and sacrifice now for the vulnerable. God calls us to love the vulnerable back to paths that lead to life. 1 Corinthians 13:7 is an eternal call to persevere and trust and hope in order to protect the dignity of each human person. Vulnerability speaks of a need. A need for help, a need for friendship, a need for hope. Vulnerability calls for a response. Abortion and Euthanasia react to that call with death. Love responds to that call with life. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.

Pro-Life Organizations

There are a variety of pro-life organizations at the local, provincial, and national levels in Canada. Consider joining and supporting these organizations by subscribing to their newsletters, becoming involved in their activities, and providing financial support by becoming a monthly donor.

One of the best ways to become educated and informed regarding Canadian pro-life issues is to subscribe to the provincial and national organization newsletters. The subjects in these newsletters are very informative and eye opening as the majority of the topics are not covered by the mainstream media due to their socialist and liberal bias to Christian Catholic views.
