SUNDAY AFTER THEOPHANY

SYNAXIS OF THE HOLY AND GLORIOUS PROPHET,
FORERUNNER AND BAPTIST JOHN

Antiphon

When Israel came forth from Egypt, the house of Jacob from an alien people.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God,* O Saviour, save us.

Judah became His sanctuary, Israel His dominion. Through the prayers of the Mother of God,* O Saviour, save us.

The sea beheld this and fled,* the Jordan turned back on its course.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God,* O Saviour, save us.

Why was it, O sea, that you fled,* that you, O Jordan, turned back on your course?

Through the prayers of the Mother of God,* O Saviour, save us.

Glory... Now... Only-Begotten Son...

Entrance

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ. Son of God, baptized by John in the Jordan, save us who sing to You: Alleluia.

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: Angelic powers were upon Your tomb* and the guards became like dead men;* Mary stood before Your tomb* seeking Your most pure body.* You captured Hades without being overcome by it.* You met the Virgin and granted life.* O Lord, risen from the dead,* glory be to You!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: She who once was barren gives birth today to the Forerunner of Christ,* who will fulfil every prophecy.* In the Jordan he placed his hand upon the One Whom the prophets foretold,* and thus was shown to be the prophet, the herald,* and the Forerunner of the Word of God.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Prokeimenon

Let your mercy, O Lord, be upon us* as we have hoped in you.

verse: rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous.

Epistle

Ephesians 4:7-13

A reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and Sisters, each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people."

(When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.

Please gather your children to hold candles for the Gospel.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

verse: Your mercies, O Lord, I will sing for ever; from generation to generation I will announce Your truth with my mouth.

verse: For You have said: Mercy shall be built up for ever; in the heavens Your truth shall be prepared.

verse: Light shines forth for the just and joy for the upright of heart.

verse: Rejoice, you just, in the Lord; give glory to his holy name.

Gospel

Matthew 4:12-17

At that time, Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

"Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

Hymn to the Mother of God

O my soul, magnify Christ the King, baptized in the Jordan.

and the Irmos: Every tongue is at a loss to praise you as is your due, O Mother of God. Even a spirit from above is filled with dizziness when seeking to sing your praises. But since you are good accept our faith, for you know well our love inspired by God. For it is you who protect all Christians; therefore, we magnify you.

Communion Hymn

The grace of God has appeared* bringing salvation to all. (Titus 2:11)* Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia. (Psalm 148:1)

Instead of "Blessed is He who comes..." we sing:

All creation is filled with rejoicing today, for Christ is baptized in the Jordan.

Instead of "We have seen the true light..." we sing:

All creation is filled with rejoicing today, for Christ is baptized in the Jordan.

Instead of "May our mouths..." and "Blessed be the Name..." we sing:

All creation is filled with rejoicing today, for Christ is baptized in the Jordan. (3)

Home Blessing at the Feast of Jordan

Having celebrated the Nativity of Emmanuel (God-with-us), and having completed the twelve days of Christmas, we now gather on the shores of the Jordan River to both encounter the Baptism of our Lord and to recall our own baptism into Jesus Christ. We are adopted sons and daughters of our Father in heaven through baptism and we need to continue celebrating this moment as a time of rebirth and renewal. But did you know that this transmission of grace is meant to extend into our homes as well?

Initial home blessing as a form of baptism: We build a church to reflect the heavenly glory of God's Kingdom and to be a special place where the angelic choirs combine with our voices to worship and praise God, living in communion with God and with our Christian family. In the same way when we build or purchase a new home we are also called to devote that structure to God so it too can also be a place where God is present as we strive daily to live a Christian life (the home church if you will). We do this by calling the presbyters of the Church to bless our home. At this initial blessing the house is baptized by the sprinkling of holy water (a visible sign of God's grace) and the four outside walls are anointed with holy oil sealing the house as a Christian home to live in communion with God and with our nuclear family. This blessing need only occur once (but can be repeated in special circumstances).

So why should I have my home blessed every year? At baptism our sins are washed away and we become united to God. But through our human weakness and under the influence of forces seen and unseen we fall into sin and need to be reconciled with God once again (that's what the sacrament of Confession is all about). In the same way we can break the bond between God and our home by turning it into a "den of thieves," bringing sin in and allowing unholy forces, seen and unseen, to dwell within its walls. Think of what we watch on television or on the computer, how we talk about others, how we treat each other as family, how we make (or do not make) God present in our daily lives. All these things can welcome unwanted guests into our homes. Recall Matthew 12:43-45 - "When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first." The passage speaks of the human soul but spirits can lie in wait as well. So we need to be vigilant and clean our homes of such spirits at least once a year by the waters of the Jordan.

What I need to prepare for the Jordan blessing: At a central location, your prayer corner if you have one, prepare a place with your family Bible (if you have one), the new holy water (that you receive today), and a candle so that when the priest comes you will be ready to celebrate the blessing together.

HOW to Be a GREAT DAD

BE A GREAT DAD program at St. Stephens.

Increasingly Dads want to provide more than just financial support for their children. Dads also want to be active participants in their children's growth and development and "be there" to share day to day and significant life experiences.

Many of today's Dads because of separation and divorce or just handling life day to day are struggling to be the role model and have difficulty being there to play an important role in teaching them life's lessons in the way they live and work. What impact does today's Dad have on the family unit?

The 3 hour introductory session covers;

- ◆ 5 Things Great Dads do.
- ◆ Communication with your kids.
- ◆ Listening – really listening.
- ◆ Disciplining your kids
- ◆ Importance of Dad's role in healthy child development.

You can contact Tom Shindruk – Facilitator at 403-813-7730
