EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

THE HOLY GRAND PRINCE VOLODYMYR, EQUAL-TO-THE-APOSTLES, NAMED BASIL AT HOLY BAPTISM (1015)

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: By Your cross You destroyed death;* You opened Paradise to the thief;* You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy,* and charged the apostles to proclaim* that You are risen, O Christ our God,* offering great mercy to the world.

Troparion: You resembled the merchant who sought the pearl of great price,* O Vladimir, glorious in might:* seated on the throne of Kiev, the divinely-saved mother of the cities of Rus',* as a seeker you sent envoys to the Imperial City* to know the orthodox faith,* and found Christ the pearl, who chose you as another Paul,* and removed your blindness both spiritual and bodily in the holy font.* Therefore we, your people, feast your falling asleep.* Pray that the leaders of Rus' be saved with those entrusted to them.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity,* for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers.* Hades is bound.* The prophets exult with one voice.* The Saviour has come for those with faith, saying:* "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion: You emulated Paul the great apostle,* O glorious Vladimir,* late in life you abandoned your zeal for idols as childish thinking,* and as a full-grown man you were adorned with divine baptism's royal purple.* Standing with joy in the presence of Christ the Saviour,* pray that the leaders of Rus' may be saved with those entrusted to them.

Prokeimenon:

The Lord will give strength to His people;* the Lord will bless His people with peace.
verse: Bring to the Lord, O you sons of God; bring to the Lord young rams.

Prokeimenon:

Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

Epistle

(1 Corinthians 1:10-18)

A reading from the First Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and Sisters, I appeal to you, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Alleluia:

It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Your name, O Most High.

verse: To announce Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth every night.

verse: I have exalted one chosen from among My people.

verse: Indeed, My hand shall sustain him, and My arm shall make him strong.

Gospel

(Matthew 14:14-22)

At that time, Jesus went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Communion verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.

Second verse:

The just man shall be in everlasting remembrance;* of evil hearsay he shall have no fear.* Alleluia (x3)

Feast of the Prophet Elias (also known as Elijah) — July 20

Elias was one of the greatest and most remarkable prophets of the old Testament. Of his origin, not much is known, except that he was a Thesbite. (Tishbe was a town near the Jordan River south of the Sea of Galilee). He appeared on the historical scene during the reign of king Achab (9 cent. B.C.). He delivered to that impious king the message of Yahweh: Israel would be punished by a long drought and Achab's house would fall. He then lived to see the tragic end of Achab. Next we hear of Elias in connection with Ochozias, Achab's son and successor, to whom, he predicted the injuries in a fall would be fatal. The end of the earthly life of Elias came mysteriously.

As he was conversing with Eliseus on the hills of Moah, "a fiery chariot, and fiery horses parted them both asunder, and Elias went up by a whirlwind into heaven" (kgs. 2:11) Jews, Christians and Moslems pay high honor to Elias; Carmelite monks cherish the belief that their order was in some sense founded by him. Together, with Moses, he appeared at Christ's Transfiguration.

The veneration of Elias dates back to apostolic times. In the fourth Century, the feast was already generally known. St. John Chrysostom, St. Ambrose, and St. Augustine have testified to his greatness, a fact which alone would prove the antiquity of this feast.

In her Liturgy, the Church calls the prophet Elias a "pillar of the prophets and the second forerunner of the coming of Christ (troparion). The Kontakion praises him as the one "who foresaw the mighty acts of God." During matins, one stichera declares "Let us believers honor with praises the chief of the prophets, those two radiant luminaries of the universe, Elias and Eliseus. Let us lift our voices unto Christ with rejoicing, saying: by the intercessions of Your two prophets, O compassionate Lord, grant your people forgiveness of sins and Your great mercy."

2018 ANNUAL STAMPEDE BREAKFAST

GLAMORGAN CHURCH OF GOD—ST. STEPHEN'S PROTOMARTYR UKR CATHOLIC CHURCH

YEEHAW! Thanks to all the organizers, volunteers and participants that made this year's joint Glamorgan Church of God and St. Stephen's Annual Stampede breakfast a huge success! Over 1200 people enjoyed a wonderful pancake breakfast last Saturday with live music, dancing, pony rides and face painting. Great fun was had by all!

Special THANK YOU to Stan for his beautiful photos. Visit St Stephen's Protomartyr website and Facebook page for more...

We deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy in the loss of our Barrie...

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair

Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers that we saw sitting there

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day

Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you for whatever part.

The Gillam Family

Please Note :

Fr. Greg is taking some vacation time from July 24 to August 7. We welcome Fr. Athanasius McVay who will be with us for the 2 Sundays that Fr. Greg is away.

*Emergency calls for the Sacrament of the sick will be coordinated by Fr. Greg at 403-700-0882
