TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

VENERABLE JOANNICIUS THE GREAT (846);
MARTYRS NICANDER, BISHOP OF MYRA AND HERMAS, THE PRIEST

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: By Your cross You destroyed death;* You opened Paradise to the thief;* You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy,* and charged the apostles to proclaim* that You are risen, O Christ our God,* offering great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity,* for Christ went down shattering and destroying it s powers.* Hades is bound.* The prophets exult with one voice.* The Saviour has come for those with faith, saying:* “Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!”

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion: O all-praised treasury of our resurrection, we hope in you,* bring us up from the pit and depth of sin,* for you have saved those subject to sin* by giving birth to our Salvation,* O Virgin before childbirth, and Virgin in childbirth,* and still a Virgin after childbirth.

Prokeimenon: The Lord will give strength to His people;* the Lord will bless His people with peace.

verse: Bring to the Lord, O you sons of God; bring to the Lord young rams.

Epistle: Ephesians 2:14-22

A reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and Sisters, Christ is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

Alleluia: It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Your name, O Most High.

verse: To announce Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth every night.

Gospel: Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying.

As he went, the crowds pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus asked, “Who touched me?” When all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you.” But Jesus said, “Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me.” When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader's house to say, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer.” When Jesus heard this, he replied, “Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved.” When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother. They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, “Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But he took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!" Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat. Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Communion Hymn: Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE :

On November 11th, 2018, at the 10:30 am Divine Liturgy Our KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS and ST. STEPHEN'S PARISH COMMUNITY will present memorial wreaths in honor of our Canadian Military who gave their lives, and those who put their lives at risk, so that we can continue to enjoy the freedom we have.

Please join us in remembering and honoring our military heroes. Program and refreshments in the parish hall after the Divine Liturgy.

The wreaths that we place and poppies that we wear are a symbolic gesture of respect showing that WE CARE, WE REMEMBER and that WE WILL NOT FORGET.

We believe in quality Catholic education in Calgary. Do you?

Support Catholic Education Sunday
November 4, 2018

As our Alberta bishops taught us in 2017: "The nature and mission of our schools is rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ." We, as faithful Catholics, are entrusted to ensure our children are immersed in Catholic teachings throughout their education. We all must work to preserve and enhance the precious gift of publicly funded Catholic education.

To that end, The Calgary Catholic Education Foundation's mission is to enhance the educational experience of Calgary Catholic students. We do so with your generous donations received on Catholic Education Sunday.
