SUNDAY OF ZACCHEUS

POST-FEAST OF THE ENCOUNTER; THE HOLY AND JUST SIMEON WHO RECEIVED GOD AND THE PROPHETESS ANNA

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel* the glorious news of the resurrection* and cast off the ancestral condemnation,* they proudly told the apostles:* "Death has been plundered!* Christ our God is risen,* granting to the world great mercy."

Troparion: Rejoice, full of grace, Virgin Mother of God!* From you there dawned the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God,* who enlightens those who dwell in darkness.* And you, O righteous Elder, be glad!* You received in your embrace* the Liberator of our souls,* who grants us resurrection.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: My Saviour and Deliverer from the grave* as God raised out of bondage the children of the earth* and shattered the gates of Hades;* and as Master, He rose on the third day.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion: By Your birth, You sanctified a virgin womb* and fittingly blessed the hands of Simeon.* You have come also now and saved us, O Christ our God;* give peace to Your community in time of war,* and strengthen its rulers, whom You love,* for You alone,* are the Lover of mankind.

Prokeimenon: How great are Your works, O Lord* You have made all things in wisdom.
verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

Prokeimenon: My soul magnifies the Lord,* and my spirit has rejoiced in God, My Saviour.

Epistle

1 Timothy 4:9-15

A reading from the First Epistle of the holy Apostle Paul to Timothy Timothy, my son, the saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

These are the things you must insist on and teach. Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. Until I arrive, give attention to the public reading of scripture, to exhorting, to teaching. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders. Put these things into practice, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress.

Alleluia: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.
verse: You have loved justice and hated iniquity. (Psalm 44:8)

Gospel

Luke 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Hymn to the Mother of God:

O God-bearing Virgin, hope of Christians, protect and guard and save all those who put their trust in you.

Irmos: In the law, the shadow, and the scriptures, we the faithful see a figure: every male child that opens the womb shall be sanctified to God. Therefore do we magnify the first-born Word and

Son of the Father who is without beginning, the first-born Child of a Mother who had not known man.

Communion verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.

Second verse: I will take the chalice of salvation;* and I will call upon the name of the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

to others around you.

For the majority of the population, exposure to scents is not typically problematic. However, for those who have environmental sensitivities, the presence of perfumes and other scented products can present indoor air quality concerns and potentially a risk of health hazard.

With this in mind, we ask all parishioners to be cooperative in our efforts to accommodate these health concerns and be cognizant of our use of scented products.

Please be considerate and choose scent-free products where possible.

Please be air aware...because we share the air !

Social Mission Workshop/Retreat

March 15, 16
at Camp Oselia

This will be a jam-packed 24 hours! Beginning at 6:30 pm on Friday and ending at 6:30 pm on Saturday. We will focus on two themes:

- ❖ Our relationship as Ukrainian Catholics with the Indigenous community. We will learn about each other and spend time sharing.
- ❖ The concerns of the environment and ways that we can move our Eparchy toward a better treatment of the gift of the earth.

Join us if you have an interest in social justice and development issues. Participants will leave with practical ideas for doing work in these areas, educating ourselves and others about these issues, and with contacts and materials to lead social justice presentations in their own parishes. We recommend that you approach your parish or parish organizations to support you with the cost of registration.

COST: $70.00. Register by Jan. 11. 780-424-5496. A shuttle to Camp Oselia will be provided from the Cathedral in Edmonton if there is an interest.
