THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

THE TRANSFER OF THE PRECIOUS RELICS (438) OF OUR FATHER AMONG THE SAINTS JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion: Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice,* for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm.* He trampled death by death. He became the first-born of the dead;* He saved us from the abyss of Hades* and granted great mercy to the world.

Troparion: The divine Church rejoices* and the whole world keeps feast with radiance* at the transfer of your relics, O venerable hierarch John Chrysostom.* Your life as a bishop was godly* and you willingly became a martyr.* Therefore we cry to you, O martyr, passion-bearer and hierarchs' companion:* Pray to Christ God that our souls may be saved.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion: You rose from the tomb, O compassionate Lord,* and led us out from the gates of death.* Today Adam exults and Eve rejoices,* and the prophets together with the patriarchs* unceasingly acclaim the divine might of Your power.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Kontakion: The precious Church rejoices mystically* at the transfer of your holy relics* and treasuring them as costly gold* it lavishly grants to those who hymn you the grace of healing,* by your prayers, O John the Golden-mouthed.

Prokeimenon: Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

verse: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy.

Prokeimenon: My mouth shall speak wisdom and the meditation of my heart understanding.

Epistle

1 Timothy 1:15-17

A reading from the First Epistle of the holy Apostle Paul to Timothy

Timothy, my son, the saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia: In You, O Lord, have I hoped that I may not be put to shame for ever.

verse: Be a protector unto me, O God, and a house of refuge to save me.

Gospel

Luke 18:35-43

At that time, as Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening. They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by." Then he shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has saved you." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

Communion verse:

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest.

Second verse: The just man shall be in everlasting remembrance;* of evil hearsay he shall have no fear.* Alleluia, alleluia,* alleluia.

We welcome fourteen children preparing to receive their First Solemn Communion this year.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY DINNER & A MOVIE

Sr. Madeleine Gregg, fcJ & Charles Pottie-Pâté, SJ

IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA:

How does the "graced history" of Ignatius of Loyola impact my own "graced history"?

This modern and very human take on the story of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, often called "The Saint of Second Chances" is an incisive and thrilling look at the life of the real man behind the legend. In his lifelong quest to become the heroic knight of his fantasies, Ignatius stares death in the face again and again, having his leg shattered by a cannonball in battle; driven to near suicide by his inner demons; finding himself imprisoned, accused of being an illuminati; and finally finding his life in the hands of the Inquisition. Through it all, he would come to see the hand of God working in his life, shaping the self-obsessed sinner into the loyal and passionate soldier-saint.

Social Mission Workshop/Retreat March 15, 16 at Camp Oselia

This will be a jam-packed 24 hours!

Beginning at 6:30 pm on Friday and ending at 6:30 pm on Saturday. We will focus on two themes:

- ❖ Our relationship as Ukrainian Catholics with the Indigenous community. We will learn about each other and spend time sharing.
- ❖ The concerns of the environment and ways that we can move our Eparchy toward a better treatment of the gift of the earth.

Join us if you have an interest in social justice and development issues. Participants will leave with practical ideas for doing work in these areas, educating ourselves and others about these issues, and with contacts and materials to lead social justice presentations in their own parishes. We recommend that you approach your parish or parish organizations to support you with the cost of registration.

COST: $70.00. Register by Jan. 11. 780-424-5496. A shuttle to Camp Oselia will be provided from the Cathedral in Edmonton if there is an interest.
